

PRIYA DADLANI

Brooklyn, NY / pfdadlani@gmail.com / priyadadlani.com / 301.873.2620 / LinkedIn

LEADERSHIP

SPICY / Director & Founder

November 2017 – Present, Brooklyn, NY

Managing a grassroots arts collective by and for queer BIPOC working at the intersection of arts, justice, and publishing. Writing and editing articles, developing strategic communications (emails, social media, website, etc.), managing a team of ten, and producing events & print material.

Jahajee Sisters / Grassroots Action Team

October 2019 – Present, Queens, NY

Engaging in grassroots organizing that utilizes community building and culture shift to end gender-based violence in the Indo-Caribbean community.

Fellowship for Emerging Leaders in Public Service / Fellow

October 2018 – May 2019, New York

University, NY, NY.

Enhanced leadership and management skills through critical discussion, reflection, and learning with peers and high-level public service executives.

SKILLS

Social Media Strategy

Adobe Creative Suite

Canva

G Suite

Microsoft Office

Mailchimp

Wordpress

AirTable

Event Production

Project Management

Fundraising

Copy Editing

Grant Writing

Film Production

Audio/Podcast Production

Research

Analysis

News Reporting

Interviewing

EXPERIENCE

Third Wave Fund / Communications Officer

July 2021 – Present, Remote

- Develop a multi-channel communications strategy for our department to meet mission-aligned goals.
- Manage and track metrics for all external communication including social media, newsletters, monthly podcast production, and more.
- Develop and maintain relationships with grantee partners emphasized by collaborative, grassroots storytelling.
- Support the differently focused funds at Third Wave by managing their communications schedules, grant application timelines, and more.

Media Sutra / Strategic Communications Consultant & Facilitator

May 2021 – December 2023, New York, NY

- Produce bi-monthly newsletters, manage social media calendar, and curate digital campaigns to raise funds for BIPOC creatives.
- Work with social justice organizations to achieve their goals by offering retreat facilitation, listening sessions, creative workshops, and more.

Hank Willis Thomas Studio / Strategic Communications Consultant

August 2020 – October 2020, Brooklyn NY

- Developed communications strategy and social media management for the studio, including writing monthly newsletters and editing articles.
- Managed arts-focused event production and execution, both in-person and virtual.
- Supported studio management, archiving artworks, and liaising with galleries.

TCC Group / Consultant

March 2017 – July 2020, New York, NY

- Provided research and analysis for nonprofit strategic planning processes so they achieved greatest impact in an intentional and sustainable manner.
- Project managed various portfolios, handled client communications, and maintained positive relationships with clients to ensure we met their unique needs.

Transformative Culture Project / Program Manager

May 2015 – January 2017, Boston, MA

- Provided oversight to youth empowerment programs teaching the history and purpose of journalism in social justice movements through filmmaking, storytelling, and community building.
- Crafted grant proposals, reports and communications materials for funders.

EDUCATION

Boston University

May 2017, Boston, MA

B.S., Journalism & B.A., International Relations

